

CLYDE RIVER STEAMER CLUB

UNIQUE PUBLIC EXCURSION on SUNDAY, 15th MAY 1977

by

P. S. WAVERLEY

from AYR HARBOUR, to CAIRNRYAN (Time Ashore) and CRUISE ROUND GALLOWAY COAST

The Clyde River Steamer Club has made a Party Booking Arrangement with the Waverley Steam Navigation Company in connection with the above Special Public Sailing of WAVERLEY. A very substantial reduction of £1.00 has been made on the normal Adult fare, provided bookings are made in advance, either by post or at Club Meetings.

The declared aim of the Waverley Steam Navigation Company as regards this sailing is for WAVERLEY to cruise to the limit of her Class III certificate area, which should take her round Corsewall Point to somewhere off the Galloway Coastline near Portpatrick. Apart from the interest in this area aroused by Fraser MacHaffie's recent book, "The Short Sea Route", the activities of the European Ferries Group and British Rail Ferries on the Irish services give this excursion to the outlying parts of the Firth added excitement. Last year we regretfully had to cancel our charter of WAVERLEY due to lack of support, but we sincerely hope this venture will meet with your active participation.
