

CLYDE RIVER STEAMER CLUB

AUTUMN EXCURSION

SATURDAY 15th SEPTEMBER 1984

By M.V. THE SECOND SNARK

GREENOCK TO ETTRICK BAY, KAMES AND TIGHNABRUAICH

Many members will recall with pleasure the excursion of 18 years ago by M.V. Countess of Breadalbane to Kames Cargo Pier. This cruise by Countess's 'Little Sister Ship' gives an opportunity of repeating that most enjoyable visit, with the added attraction of cruising to Ettrick Bay, last visited by a well known Clyde Steamer of yesteryear in 1953.

Arrangements have been made with Kames Hotel to provide a limited number of High Teas at 16.30 (Choice of homemade Shepherd's Pie or a cooked Ham Salad with usual trimmings, Tea, Scones and Cakes) at a most reasonable price of £2.75. It will be of great assistance to the Hotel in preparation of Teas if we can advise them in advance of Main Course choice. Those booking High Tea are therefore requested to indicate their choice on Booking Form.
