

UNIQUE TWO SHIPS CRUISE

aboard

m.v. "Kenilworth" and p.s. "Waverley"

on

Saturday 14th October 2006

To celebrate the seventieth anniversary of the Clyde's oldest active ferry, the Club has chartered the Clyde Marine motor vessel Kenilworth to offer a unique opportunity to sail aboard two historic ships on one day. Kenilworth will sail from Greenock to Blairmore, calling en route at Dunoon, to allow a rare chance to photograph the vessel there. At Blairmore, Kenilworth will meet up with Waverley, herself celebrating the Diamond Jubilee of her launching, and transfer passengers for the paddle steamer's cruise to Lochgoilhead and Arrochar.
