Coach and Cruise Excursion

to

Islay

aboard

m.v. "Hebridean Isles"*

on

Saturday 27th January 2007

For our New Year Excursion in 2007, the Club has arranged a Coach and Cruise trip to Islay.

We start off at Gourock, leaving aboard m.v. *Jupiter on the 0920 sailing to Dunoon. There we join our coach for the journey to Portavadie, then sail across to Tarbert (Loch Fyne). At Tarbert, we shall stop to allow members to have something to eat, before proceeding to Kennacraig and joining m.v. *Hebridean Isles for her afternoon return sailing to Islay. Please note that the afternoon crossing will be to Port Ellen. Port Askaig is currently closed for operational reasons.

During the sailing, full catering facilities will be available aboard the ship, which members will be able to enjoy at their leisure. Please note that catering is NOT being arranged as part of the trip.

Once we return to Kennacraig, we shall rejoin our coach and head back to Dunoon via Inveraray, arriving in time to catch the last CalMac sailing to Gourock, leaving Dunoon at 2045.
